

CANTERBURY DISASTER
SALVAGE TEAM

The Canterbury Disaster Salvage Team
(Disaster Preparedness, Education and Training for Heritage and Cultural Institutions)

Symposium on

Extreme Disaster

(What to consider should the worst happen)

Reflections from those who know from the Canterbury quakes

(for heritage and cultural institutions)

Date:

Feb 20th 2015

Venue

Air Force Museum of New Zealand
45, Harvard Ave, Wigram.

Cost:

$75.00

Please contact Julie Humby on 03 9408219 or artcurator@cpit.ac.nz to register interest

Canterbury Disaster Symposium Feb 20th 2015 Air Force Museum

8.30 - 9 am	Registration
9 am - 9.30 am	Welcome to Air Force Museum Therese Angelo - Director Air Force Museum "The build and use of the Recovery Centre at the Airforce Museum after the quakes"
9.30 am - 10.30 am	Win Clark - Engineer "Securing of buildings following a damaging Earthquake. Why buildings fail in an earthquake"
10.30 am - 11 am	Morning Tea
11.00 am - 11.30 am	Gina Irish - Registrar Christchurch Art Gallery - Assisted by Rebekkah Pickrill "Securing devices for art galleries"
11.30 am - 12 am	Lynn Campbell - Conservator The Getty v Christchurch
12 - 12.30 pm	Tania Nutria - Archivist Ngai Tahu "Salvaging archives from the Red Zone"
12.30 pm - 1.30 pm	Lunch (not provided – own arrangements)
1.30 pm - 2pm	Sue McKenzie - Kaiapoi Museum "The resurrection of Kaiapoi Museum"
2 pm - 2.30 pm	Darren Hammond - Curatorial Officer Air Force Museum "The assistance the Airforce Museum gave to other museums in helping to salvage their collections"
2.30 pm - 3 pm	Jenny May - Heritage Consultant "The heritage sector response to the earthquakes and restoration that followed"
3 pm - 3.30 pm	Afternoon Tea
3.30 pm - 4 pm	Anne Scott - Librarian University of Canterbury "The aftermath - the library experience"
4 - 5 pm	Panel with questions Win Clark, Lynn Campbell, Darren Hammond + invited guests
5 pm	Wind up and thanks